Re: Make a splash with NOLS and the SARC Pool

Lift some weights, go for a swim, take an exercise class, or just splash around! The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) has partnered with the Sequim Aquatic Recreation Center (SARC) in Sequim to make two free passes available for checkout beginning November 3. Whether alone or with the entire family, SARC passes give library card holders a free, fun and easy way to test the waters and stay active.

How to use your pool pass

Two passes means borrowers have two ways to enjoy SARC. One pass is for individuals who'd like to try one of the many fitness classes offered at SARC—from Tai Chi to water aerobics. The second pass grants up to six household members access to workout, cardio, and weight rooms, in addition to open swim and family fun night. Patrons may borrow each pass for up to one week. SARC passes are valid only at the Sequim Aquatic Recreation Center in Sequim; there are also passes available for the William Shore Pool in Port Angeles. At this time, neither pass includes swimming lessons.

Reserving your pass & Additional information

To place a hold request, visit www.nols.org and use the online catalog to search for "SARC Pool Pass." Hold requests can also be made by calling the library or visiting any of the four NOLS libraries in Clallam County.

NOLS pool passes have been generously donated by the Sequim Aquatic Recreation Center. For more information about the pool, including hours of operation and class schedules, visit www.sarcfitness.com or follow the pool on Facebook and Twitter. The pool offers lap swim and open swim sessions, family fun nights, aerobics classes, and occasional special events.

For more information about NOLS pool passes and other nontraditional items available for checkout, contact Technical Services Manager Erin Shield at 360.417.8500 ext. 7724, or send an email to eshield@nols.org.
