Eye in the Sky: Government Surveillance in the Information Age will be presented at 6:30pm on Monday, December 1, at the Port Angeles Main Library. The program, led by Pat Gallagher of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) Speaker's Bureau of Washington, will focus on information gathering and surveillance methods, efforts to reign-in surveillance programs, and contemporary privacy concerns related to surveillance issues.

This program is made possible with generous support from the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. Attendance is free and no preregistration is required.

Want to learn more? Browse the library catalog for additional resources related to topics of online privacy, security and surveillance. To get started, visit www.nols.org or ask library staff for assistance.

The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. For more information about this and other upcoming events, visit www.nols.org and click on "Events" and "Port Angeles," or call 360.417.8500.
