Re: Book discussion of Skipping Christmas by John Grisham at the Sequim Branch Library

Skipping Christmas by John Grisham will be discussed at 3pm on Saturday, December 13, at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS).

“Imagine a year without Christmas. No crowded shops, no corny office parties, no fruitcakes, no unwanted presents. That's just what Luther and Nora Krank have in mind when they decide they'll skip the holiday altogether. Come December 25, they're setting sail on a Caribbean cruise.

“But, skipping Christmas brings enormous consequences—and isn't half as easy as they'd imagined. Skipping Christmas is a hilarious look at the chaos and frenzy that has become part of our holiday tradition (Amazon.com review).”

Pre-registration for this program is not required, and drop-ins are always welcome. Copies of the book are available at the Sequim Branch Library in various formats including regular print, large print, audiobook on CD, and downloadable e-book and audio book. To place a hold, visit the library catalog at www.nols.org.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information about this and other programs for readers and book lovers, visit www.nols.org and click on “Events” and “Sequim”, or contact the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161 or send an email to Sequim@nols.org.
