Re: Book discussion of The Whistling Season by Ivan Doig
at the Sequim Branch Library

The Whistling Season by Ivan Doig will be discussed at 3pm on Saturday, July 12, at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System.

Novelist Ivan Doig revisits the American West in the early twentieth century, bringing to life the eccentric individuals and idiosyncratic institutions that made it thrive. A gargantuan irrigation project, a stampede of homesteaders, a self-advertised housekeeper (“Can’t cook, doesn’t bite,”) and her font-of-knowledge brother, a Montana widower and his three sons – all brought together in the region’s one-room schoolhouse, conspire to set the stage for “several kinds of education.”

Copies of the book are available at the Sequim Branch Library in various formats including downloadable e-book or audio CD. They can be requested online through the library catalog at www.nols.org. Pre-registration for this program is not required, and drop-ins are always welcome.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information on this and other programs for readers and book lovers, go to www.nols.org and click on “Events” and “Sequim,” or contact the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161 or Sequim@nols.org.
