Re: Books & Libations comes to Sequim

Enjoy a perfect pairing at Books & Libations, a free 21+ event co-hosted by the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) and Wind Rose Cellars! Learn about great new books and delicious local wines at this fun program for adults, taking place at 6pm on Thursday, January 21, at the Wind Rose Cellars Tasting Room and Wine Bar in Sequim.

About the tasting

At each tasting station, participants will sample one great book and one of Wind Rose's artisanal Northwest wines. Each book has been perfectly paired with each of the wines, with titles ranging from sci-fi to experimental fiction, matched in tone and intensity to red, white, and rosé wines. After your first taste, move on to the next table for another delicious pairing! Altogether, participants will learn about six spectacular books from NOLS volunteers and sample six amazing wines throughout the evening.

Registration for this event is required. To register, or for additional information, visit www.nols.org and select "Events" and "Sequim." All adults are welcome; some registration space has been reserved especially for Sequim-area residents (call the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161 to register). A valid photo ID must be presented upon entry. Wind Rose Cellars is located at 143 West Washington Street in Sequim. For driving directions and more information about the winery, visit www.windrosecellars.com.
