Re: Financial Literacy Series at Port Angeles Main Library

Is credit scoring a mystery to you? Are you nervous about your future financial stability, or curious about how to restore your credit rating? Anna Coburn, compliance specialist and community reinvestment officer with First Federal community bank, will share her wealth of knowledge gained from 25 years of banking experience in a free, two-part financial literacy series this March at the Port Angeles Main Library.

Coburn's first presentation, Understanding Credit, will take place at 6:30pm on Tuesday, March 8, and explore how to establish good credit, understand scoring, avoid common mistakes and traps, and restore your credit. Coburn will next discuss Money Management at 6:30pm on Tuesday, March 22, and address managing assets, goal setting, and future planning.

Participants are welcome to attend one or both sessions. Registration is not required, however supplies will be limited to the first 20 participants.

Both events will take place in the Raymond Carver Room at the Port Angeles Main Library, and are generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. For more information about this and other upcoming programs, call the Port Angeles Main Library at 360.417.8500 or visit www.nols.org and select "Events".

A two-part financial literacy series will take place March 8 & 22 at the Port Angeles Main Library.
