Re: NOLS Celebrates Día's 20th Anniversary with musician Eli Rosenblatt

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) will join hundreds of libraries across the nation in celebration of the 20th anniversary of El día de los niños/El día de los libros (Children's Day/Book Day) on Saturday, April 30. Bilingual musician Eli Rosenblatt and friends will lead the celebration with music to move and groove to in English and Spanish. Rosenblatt will perform at 10:30am at the Sequim Branch Library, 1pm at the Port Angeles Main Library, and 4pm at the Forks Branch Library. All children in attendance will receive a free book.

About Eli Rosenblatt

Eli Rosenblatt is a multi-instrumentalist, performer, producer, and composer based in Seattle. His music spans the globe, incorporating sounds from Cuba, Eastern Europe, Africa, and beyond. Rosenblatt's performances create a joyful atmosphere that brings together music and movement to create an exciting, interactive experience for people of all ages. "Eli and his band visited us for the grand opening of the new children's section in October," Youth Services Librarian Jennifer Knight said. "He was tons of fun! We've had people asking when he'll be back all year and are happy he's able to help us celebrate one of our favorite holidays."

Celebrate *Día!

El día de los niños/El día de los libros (Children's Day/Book Day) is a celebration of children, families, and reading that culminates each year on April 30. This special day, also known as Día, emphasizes the importance of literacy for children of all linguistic and cultural backgrounds. Every year libraries across the country celebrate Día and book diversity.

NOLS has a wide range of books for all ages available in Spanish. In addition, patrons may request books in other languages from libraries around the country through the library's interlibrary loan service.

All Día events are generously supported by Friends of the Library groups in Forks, Port Angeles, and Sequim.
