Re: Endangered Species Storytime in Olympic National Park

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is partnering with Olympic National Park to offer a special Endangered Species Day edition of storytime that will focus on biodiversity and feature a puppet show, stories, songs, and crafts for 3-5 year-olds. Endangered Species Storytime will take place at 10:30am on Friday, May 20, at the Olympic National Park Visitor's Center, located at 3002 Mount Angeles Road in Port Angeles. Limited space is available, and attendees are encouraged to arrive early.

About Endangered Species Day

Established by Congress in 2006, Endangered Species Day is a celebration of the nation's wildlife and wild places. The goal of Endangered Species Day is simple—to educate people about the importance of protecting our rare, threatened, and endangered animal and plant species.

For more information about this special storytime, visit www.nols.org, call the library at 360.417.8500 x7705, or send an email to youth@nols.org. For additional information about Endangered Species Day, visit www.endangeredspeciesday.org, and to learn more about Olympic National Park and its programs for youth, visit <http://www.nps.gov/olym>. This program is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.
