Re: First Friday ArtWalk at the Sequim Branch Library

Local music duo Howly Slim and Sandy Summers will perform at 6:30pm on Friday, June 3, at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) during the June Art Walk and opening reception for the new Art in the Library show, which features the work of Eileen Gieser. The artist reception begins at 6pm, followed by Slim and Summers' live performance.

About the band

Slim and Summers' original bluegrass-inspired tunes take listeners on a journey through everyday America, with themes that include, according to Slim himself: "Trains, tramps, tree planters, small towns, big cities, roads, boulevards, hobo jungles, skid row streets, loneliness, happiness, madness, longing, waitresses, good love, bad love, love gone wrong, corny, liberal, redneck, and heartache."

Art in the Library

The Summer Art in the Library exhibit features the work of Eileen Gieser, and will be on display from June 3 through October 3 at the Sequim Branch Library.

More information

Limited library services will also be available during the reception. This program is made free to the public with generous support from the Friends of Sequim Library. The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue in Sequim. For more information about this and other upcoming events, visit www.nols.org and select “Events” and “Sequim,” or contact the library at 360.683.1161.
