Re: Lawn Games for Grown-Ups at the Port Angeles Main Library

Grown-ups: Game on! It's time to stretch your repertoire and try your hand at fun outdoor games to get you moving. Drop in anytime between 1pm and 5pm on Saturday, June 25 at the Port Angeles Main Library to enjoy bocce ball, bean bag tosses, ladder tosses, and other fun outdoor games, along with sidewalk chalk and lemonade. Exercise your mind—and more—during this free event, part of the 2016 Adult Summer Reading Program at the North Olympic Library System (NOLS).

In the event of inclement weather, select activities will take place inside the Raymond Carver Room at the library.

The 2016 Adult Summer Reading Program

Designed for adults ages 18 and older, the 2016 Adult Summer Reading Program will take place between June 20 and August 20. Participating is easy: simply visit any NOLS library to pick up your Reading Log (and some books!). For every complete book you read, you will receive one entry in a marvelous Grand Prize drawing; the more you read, the better your chances of winning! To keep readers motivated, NOLS will be hosting events and activities throughout the summer.
