Re: Backyard Fun for Everyone at the Sequim Branch Library

Game on! It's time to stretch your repertoire and try your hand at fun outdoor games to get you moving. Drop in between 4pm and 6pm on Wednesday, July 6, at the Sequim Branch Library back lawn to enjoy bocce ball, bean bag toss, ladder toss, and other fun outdoor games, along with bubbles and lemonade. Exercise your mind—and more—during this free event, part of the 2016 Adult Summer Reading Program at the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). All ages are welcome.

In the event of inclement weather, select activities will take place inside the library meeting room.

The 2016 Adult Summer Reading Program

Designed for adults ages 18 and older, the 2016 Adult Summer Reading Program will take place between June 20 and August 20. Participating is easy: simply visit any NOLS library to pick up your Reading Log (and some books!). For every complete book you read, you will receive one entry in a marvelous Grand Prize drawing; the more you read, the better your chances of winning! To keep readers motivated, NOLS will be hosting events and activities throughout the summer.
