Re: Swimmingly Fun Storytime at the Port Angeles Main Library

Don your flippers and goggles for a water-themed storytime led by guest readers from the William Shore Memorial Pool at 10:30am on Thursday, July 28, at the Port Angeles Main Library. Participants ages 3-5 will enjoy stories and rhymes, and learn water safety tips during this fun and active storytime, part of the annual summer reading program at the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). Attendees will also be entered in a drawing for a one-day pass to the pool! This program is one in a series of sports- and wellness-related storytimes taking place Thursdays in July at the Port Angeles Main Library.
