Re: Clallam County newspaper archive now available online

Explore more than 100 years of Clallam County history with the North Olympic Library System's (NOLS) digital newspaper archive! This free database is now accessible from any computer with an internet connection, and features scanned issues of more than 20 different discontinued Clallam County newspapers dating back to 1886.

How to begin exploring

To access the archive, simply visit the Library homepage at www.nols.org and select "Local Information" from the E-Resources tab. In each scanned edition, you'll find news stories, comics and photography, advertisements, classifieds, social columns, and much more.

More information

For additional information about local history and the online newspaper archive, visit www.nols.org, send an email to Discover@nols.org, or contact your nearby NOLS branch library: the Port Angeles Main Library can be reached at 360.417.8500; the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161; the Forks Branch Library 360.374.6402, and the Clallam Bay Branch Library at 360.963.2414.
