Re: CreativiTea: DIY Journal with Artist Jan Dove

Enjoy an afternoon of journal-making, hot tea, and good company at 2pm on Saturday, September 17 at the Port Angeles Main Library. Artist Jan Dove will lead the workshop and guide participants in creating their own personalized journal. There will be plenty of time for chatting, sipping, and adding personal touches to the journals with provided collage materials and other supplies. This “CreativiTea” program at the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is free, and open to all ages.

About Jan Dove

Jan Dove graduated with a BA in Art from California State University Hayward and an MFA in Printmaking from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Dove enjoys opening the eyes of others to the processes and joys of their own creativity. For this particular project, she will teach participants how to create and decorate their own journals from scratch. Most materials will be provided, with the exception of each person’s individual style!
