Re: Food for Thought: Pie School on the West End

Author, teacher, and baker Kate Lebo will visit the Clallam Bay and Forks branch libraries of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) on Monday, October 10 to offer pie-baking workshops that will feature a demonstration of pie crust preparation, a creative reading, and a few sweet samples from her book, "Pie School: Lessons in Fruit, Flour, and Butter." The first Food for Thought workshop will take place at 1pm at the Clallam Bay Branch Library, followed by another at 6pm at Forks Branch Library. Both workshops are free and open to the public.

About Kate Lebo

Kate Lebo is the author of two cookbooks, "Pie School" (Sasquatch Books) and "A Commonplace Book of Pie" (Chin Music Press). Her essays and poems have appeared in Best American Essays, Best New Poets, New England Review, Willow Springs, The Rumpus, Gastronomica, and others. She also writes the occasional "Cooking the Books" column for the Spokesman-Review. In 2017, Sasquatch Books will release Lebo's "Pie & Whiskey," an anthology co-edited with Sam Ligon and based on their popular Pie & Whiskey reading series. She lives in Spokane, Washington.
