Re: "From Housewives to Heroes" at Port Angeles Library

Gwen Whiting, lead curator and program manager at the Washington State Historical Society, will visit the Port Angeles Main Library at 1pm on Saturday, October 15 to discuss some of the triumphs and troubles experienced by women in 1930s America. Whiting's free presentation, "From Housewives to Heroes," is offered as part of the 2016 Clallam County Reads program, ongoing at the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) throughout the month of October.

Clallam County Reads

Clallam County Reads is a book club for the entire county. Throughout October, NOLS—in collaboration with community partners around the Olympic Peninsula—will offer a series of free, educational, and community-building events and programs related to the themes explored in the book club's official selection, "The Boys in the Boat," by Daniel James Brown. To participate in the book club, simply stop by your library to pick up a free copy of "The Boys in the Boat" and its accompanying reader's guide. Copies are available on a first-come, first-served basis and are yours to keep. As a culmination to the program, Daniel James Brown will visit the Port Angeles High School auditorium at 7pm on Saturday, October 29 to discuss his experiences researching and writing "The Boys in the Boat," answer questions, and sign books.

For a complete schedule of upcoming Clallam County Reads programs and events, visit www.nols.org, send an email to Discover@nols.org, or stop by your nearby library.
