Re: Books & Libations with Blackbird Coffee

This December, learn about great new books while sipping delicious hand-crafted coffee as the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) teams up with The Blackbird Coffeehouse to offer the latest installment of “Books & Libations.” This free, fun program for adults will take place at 6pm on Saturday, December 3, at the Port Angeles Main Library.

At each tasting station, participants will sample one great book and one of Blackbird’s fresh-brewed coffees, sourced from Stumptown Coffee Roasters. Each book has been perfectly paired with each of the brews, with titles ranging from classics to sci-fi to literary fiction, matched in tone and intensity to dark and light single-origin brews as well as international blends. After your first taste, move on to the next table for another delicious pairing!

Altogether, participants will learn about six spectacular books and sample six amazing libations throughout the evening.
