Re: One-on-One “TechKnowLogy” Tutoring at the Port Angeles Main Library

By now, you may know the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) has hundreds of eBooks, eAudiobooks—even movies and music—for you to experience on your tablet, mobile device, or home computer. But do you know how to access and enjoy these free, digital resources? Let NOLS show you how!

The Port Angeles Main Library is offering free, 30-minute appointments with expert library staff for hands-on, one-on-one technology tutoring. These sessions will take place at the Port Angeles Main Library by appointment only. To schedule your TechKnowLogy appointment, send an email to Discover@nols.org. Please be sure to include what day and time you’d like to reserve, as well as what kind of device you’re using.

On the day of your appointment, simply bring your device and questions to the Port Angeles Main Library, and you will be personally guided by a NOLS expert. Learn how to download eBooks and eAudiobooks, or stream your favorite television shows, music, and movies with services such as Washington Anytime Library and Hoopla. NOLS experts will help you navigate your Kindle, Nook, Android tablet or smartphone, Apple device, laptop, or MP3 player. If you’re considering whether to purchase an eReader or similar gadget, TechKnowLogy tutors can also help you find information about which one will best suit your needs.

For more information about this and other services at your Library, send an email to Discover@nols.org, call the Port Angeles Main Library at 360.417.8500, or visit www.nols.org. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles.

Book your 30-minute, one-on-one “TechKnowLogy” appointment with a library expert by sending an email to Discover@nols.org.
