Re: Coloring Outside the Library

Take time for yourself this January and spend an hour coloring in a setting that is as relaxed as it is playful. The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) will present “Coloring Outside the Library” at 6:30pm on Monday, January 30 at Barhop Brewing and Taproom in downtown Port Angeles. Adults ages 21 and older are invited to unwind with a cold beverage and a coloring book during this informal hour of creativity. With a plethora of designs for you to fill-in—from salty seascapes to geometric whorls—there is a coloring page to suit every mood. Color outside the library, and perhaps outside the lines, this winter with NOLS!

Sweetheart Bookmarks!

Love-themed, colorable bookmarks will be provided at this special event—just in time for Valentine’s Day! Create a one-of-a-kind masterpiece for your sweetheart and give a gift that is as fun to create as it is to give away.

Coloring isn’t just for kids.

Adult coloring books flooded bookstore shelves in 2016, causing many to wonder what all the fuss was about. Is this yet another new trend soon to be forgotten, or is coloring for adults here to stay? The most striking stories come from individuals who have suffered loss and found peace while immersed in the pages of a coloring book. Coloring can be as mindful, artistic, healing, or social as you choose; whatever the experience you’re looking for, coloring can be one small step toward finding it.
