Re: Flatverse Coding Camp s

Have you ever wanted to try designing your own computer video game? Give it a shot this February and March at the Port Angeles and Sequim Branch libraries of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS)! “Flatverse Coding Camps” will offer participants of all ages weekly opportunities to experiment with an interactive programming environment from Microsoft Research, and are free to attend.

Port Angeles Main Library camps will take place from 5:30-7:30pm every Thursday in February. Sequim Branch Library camps will take place from 4-6pm on Friday, March 3, 10, 17, and 24.

Laptops will be provided, and registration is required. To register, visit www.nols.org, select “Events,” and either “Sequim” or “Port Angeles,” or send an email to Discover@nols.org.

More information

This program is made possible by a recent grant from the Washington State Library. For additional information about this and other upcoming programs at your Library, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or send an email to Discover@nols.org. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue in Sequim.

Flatverse Coding Camps will take place in Port Angeles and Sequim throughout February and March. Reserve your place today!
