Subject: Red Yarn and friends bring American folk songs and stories to life

Red Yarn Productions, a Portland-based folk music and puppetry company, will visit two North Olympic Library System (NOLS) communities to offer free musical puppetry performances for all ages. On Tuesday, March 28, Red Yarn and friends will perform at 6:30pm at the Port Angeles Main Library. On Wednesday, March 29, Red Yarn will visit the Sequim Boys and Girls Club, located at 400 West Fir Street in Sequim, at 10:30am for another fun-filled musical puppet performance.

About Red Yarn

Red Yarn is Andy Furgeson, a dynamic family performer who weaves folksongs and puppetry into engaging shows for all ages. With his energetic performances and lush folk-rock recordings, this red-bearded bard shares positive values while reinvigorating the American folklore tradition for younger generations.

Additional information

The Sequim Boys and Girls Club is located at 400 West Fir Street in Sequim and the Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles.

For more information about this and other programs for youth, contact the Port Angeles Main Library at 360.417.8500 ext. 7705, the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161, or visit the library website at www.nols.org.
