Re: Kids Create Art at the Sequim Branch Library

The popular “Kids Create Art” series at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) wraps up another season this spring with two final sessions. These fun, introductory art workshops take place from 10:30am to 12pm, April 15 and May 20.

Led by local artists, each Kids Create Art session—recommended for ages 7 to 12—will offer participants an opportunity to explore various artistic media. All workshops in the series are free, but with class sizes limited, pre-registration is required. To register, visit the Sequim Branch Library events calendar at www.nols.org, call 360.683.1161, or send an email to youth@nols.org. All materials will be provided.

Spring classes

On April 15, returning Sequim artist Carrie Rodlend will offer young artists an opportunity to work with pencils, glue, string, and tissue paper to create a collagraph plate for printing tulip blossoms.

For the May 20 program, artist and former Art Educator, Eva Kozun will teach participants to use air dry clay and simple tools to form an owl likeness and a small owl clay bead. This workshop is just the thing for those who are curious about owls and/or working with air dry clay.
