Aspiring writers, poets, lyricists, and more are encouraged to put pen to paper, or fingers to keys, at a series of weekly summer write-ins at the Clallam Bay Branch Library of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). The Write Stuff sessions will be held every Wednesday evening from 5:30pm to 7pm beginning July 12, and will run through September 20.

The 1.5 hour write-in sessions will provide an opportunity for writers to gather, share, write and contribute to a supportive writing community. Local writer and lover of words, Oscar Hammer, will facilitate the sessions. No previous writing experience is required to attend and writers of all ages are welcome. Participants should provide their own notebooks, laptops, or other preferred writing tools.

This event is made free to the public with generous support from the Clallam Bay Friends of the Library. The Clallam Bay Library is located at 16990 Highway 112. For more information about this and other upcoming programs, call 360.963.2414, send an email to ClallamBay@nols.org, or visit www.nols.org and click on "Events".
