As part of the North Olympic Library System's annual Summer Reading Program, Patrice Varela-Daylo will present WorkSource: Skill Development at the Port Angeles Main Library on Monday, July 24, at 6:30pm.

This presentation will provide an overview of the key services WorkSource offers to both job seekers and employers, all for free! Patrice Varela-Daylo will discuss the variety of workshops WorkSource provides to job seekers looking to send their resume to the top of the pile. From resume building and cover letter development, to interviewing techniques, job seekers will find a plethora of free courses to choose from. Whether you own a small business or are part of a large corporation, WorkSource can help. Businesses will discover an array of services available at no cost, including one-on-one consultations to discuss business goals and needs. Business workshops cover topics such as how to create the ideal job description to attract the applicants you want, screening applicants, and managing your open position listings online. Patrice Varela-Daylo is the Business Services Representative for WorkSource Clallam and Jefferson Counties.

More About the Summer Reading Program

The theme for the 2017 Summer Reading Program is Build a Better World. This summertime celebration, which encourages people of all ages to read throughout the summer, features a reading challenge and a multitude of events for adults. Stop by your local NOLS location to sign up for the Summer Reading Challenge and learn how to have a chance at winning fabulous prizes!

The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by the Friends of the Library at all four NOLS libraries. For more information about events happening this summer, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email Discover@nols.org. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 S. Peabody.
