As part of the North Olympic Library System's annual Summer Reading Program, the documentary Solartaxi: Around the World with the Sun will be shown at the Port Angeles Main Library on Saturday, August 12 at 2pm.

In Solartaxi, Louis Palmer, a Swiss school teacher and adventurer, together with a team of volunteers, built his own solar car and set out on a mission to circumnavigate the world on solar power. "While everyone else seems to be stuck in endless debates on how to reduce CO2-emissions by a few percent, or how to deal with the disastrous effects of drilling oil underwater, Louis' simple little car was able to show one thing: alternative energies work." – Erik Schmitt, the film's director states. After the film, enjoy family friendly sun-photography with sun-sensitive photo paper and other fun in the sun activities!
