In the Heart of the Sea by Nathaniel Philbrick will be discussed at 3pm on Saturday, August 12, at the Sequim Branch Library of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). All are welcome to join!

Of In the Heart of the Sea by Nathaniel Philbrick, Booklist Reviews writes; "...this accessible narrative of the tragic 1820s whaling voyage whose central disaster was the violent encounter with a sperm whale, which inspired the climactic scene in Melville's Moby Dick. Philbrick, director of the Egan Institute of Maritime Studies and champion sailboat racer, is well qualified to describe the issues raised by the Essex's final whale hunt... a fascinating tale, well told."

Copies of In the Heart of the Sea are available in various formats including regular print, audio book on CD, large print, audio e-book, audio book on CD, large print, and e-book; they can be requested online by visiting the library catalog at www.nols.org.

All are welcome to drop in and participate.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue in Sequim. For more information about this and other programs for readers and book lovers, visit www.nols.org and select "Events" and "Sequim," or contact the Sequim Branch Library at 360.683.1161 or Sequim@nols.org. This program is generously supported by the Friends of Sequim Library.

In the Heart of the Sea by Nathaniel Philbrick will be discussed at 3pm on Saturday, August 12, at the Sequim Branch Library.
