As part of the Documentary Nights! film series, a free screening of “The Mars Generation” will be shown at 6pm on Tuesday, August 22 at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). The film follows a group of trainees, ages 15-18, at the U.S. Space & Rocket Center as they prepare to become the engineers, astrophysicists, and astronauts of tomorrow.

“The Mars Generation” provides insight into the historical, philosophical, and technological implications of becoming a multi-planetary species and reveals that Mars is closer than you think” (Netflix). This 2017 film is rated TV-PG and is 1 hour 37 minutes in length.

NOLS was generously granted permission for an educational screening of “The Mars Generation” by Netflix. Join your friends and neighbors for eye-opening journeys and inspired stories from some of today’s most innovative and gifted filmmakers at the Documentary Nights! film series.
