Re: Wolves in Washington and at Your Library
Attachments: Wolf2.jpg

Wolf Haven International is dedicated to the conservation and protection of wolves and their habitat. Learn more about their efforts as well as wolf recovery in Washington State at unique programs taking place at the Forks Branch Library on Saturday, October 14 at 12pm, and the Sequim Branch Library on Saturday, October 14 at 5pm.

Wolf Haven International is a nationally recognized wolf sanctuary located in Tenino, Washington that has rescued and provided a lifetime home for 200 displaced, captive-born animals since 1982. Wolf Haven provides a variety of educational programs, participates in multi-agency Species Survival Plan programs for critically endangered wolves, and advocates for wolves in the wild. To learn about the work of Wolf Haven International visit
