All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr will be discussed at 3pm on Saturday, December 9, at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS).

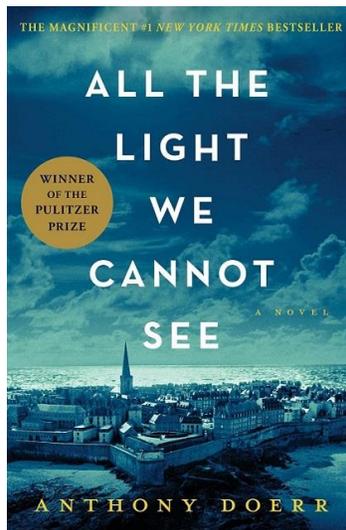

“A novel to live in, learn from, and feel bereft over when the last page is turned, Doerr's magnificently drawn story seems at once spacious and tightly composed... Marie-Louise is a sightless girl who lived with her father in Paris before the occupation... Young German soldier Werner is sent to Saint-Malo to track Resistance activity there, and eventually, and inevitably, Marie-Louise's and Werner's paths cross. It is through their individual and intertwined tales that Doerr masterfully and knowledgeably re-creates the deprived civilian conditions of war-torn France and the strictly controlled lives of the military occupiers.” -Booklist Reviews.

Copies of All the Light We Cannot See are available in various formats including regular print, large print, audiobook on CD and downloadable audio and eBooks. They may be requested online by visiting the library catalog at www.nols.org.

All are welcome to drop in and participate.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information about this and other programs for readers and book lovers, visit www.nols.org and select
