Re: CreativiTea: Reclaimed Paper Crafts

Enjoy a zero-waste afternoon of paper crafts, hot tea, and good company at 1pm on Saturday, December 16, at the Port Angeles branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). CreativiTea at the library will have attendees repurposing discarded book pages to create holiday-themed crafts. Additionally, there will be a lesson on how to re-use other household materials for wrapping paper and holiday cards. There will be plenty of time to chat, sip, and add personal touches to your repurposed creations with a variety of craft supplies.

This workshop is appropriate for all ages, though youth should be accompanied by an adult. Registration is not required. All supplies are provided. This program is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library and WSU-Extension.

The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles.
