The Soul of an Octopus by Sy Montgomery will be discussed at 4pm on Wednesday, December 27, at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS).

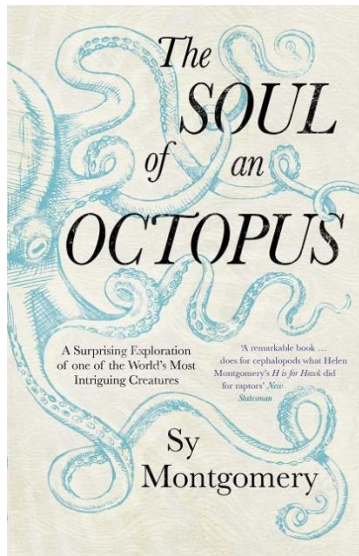

Sy Montgomery explores the emotional and physical world of the octopus - a surprisingly complex, intelligent, and spirited creature - and the remarkable connections it makes with humans...Montgomery chronicles this growing appreciation of the octopus, but also tells a love story. By turns funny, entertaining, touching, and profound, The Soul of an Octopus reveals what octopuses can teach us about consciousness and the meeting of two very different minds.”

(Publisher)

Copies of The Soul of an Octopus are available in various formats including regular print and downloadable eBook and eAudioBook. They can be requested online by visiting the library catalog at www.nols.org.

All are welcome to drop in and participate.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information about this and other programs for readers and book lovers, visit www.nols.org and select “Events” and “Book Groups,” or contact the Sequim Branch Library at 360-683-1161 or discover@nols.org. This program is generously supported by the Friends of Sequim Library.

“The Soul of an Octopus” will be discussed at 4pm on Wednesday, December 27 at the Sequim Branch Library.
