Dance and sing with the zany, energetic, and interactive duo The Harmonica Pocket as they return to the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) for three performances! The pair will appear first on Thursday, February 8 playing at the Sequim Branch Library at 10:30am, and the Port Angeles Main Library at 6:30pm. They will put on a third show at the Forks Branch Library at 10:30am on Friday, February 9.

The Harmonica Pocket is a silly and sweet, young-at-heart duo from Port Townsend. When they take the stage, audiences are taken on a musical adventure filled with song, dance and even a bit of theatrics. Their highly-interactive shows get kids and grown-ups of all ages laughing, singing and moving in their seats.

The Harmonica Pocket presents performances incorporating unexpected props, acoustic instruments, hula hoops and spinning flags. Shows are sprinkled with wah-wah guitar, ukuleles, sweet vocal harmony, a looping pedal, percussion and of course harmonicas. If you're lucky they'll whip out their "Hinklehorns" – invented instruments which are part kazoo, part plumbing fixtures!

Put on a funny hat, come to a show and find out what everybody is smiling about.
