Join the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) by taking part in OverDrive's Big Library Read program, the world's largest global eBook reading club, connecting millions of readers around the world with the same eBook at the same time. NOLS patrons will have unlimited downloadable access to Jennifer McGaha's memoir, Flat Broke with Two Goats, from April 2 through April 16. To borrow your copy of the eBook, visit the NOLS OverDrive website, also known as the Washington Anytime Library, at www.nols.org. The Big Library Read is facilitated by OverDrive, the leading platform for eBooks and audiobooks available from libraries.

About the Book

Flat Broke with Two Goats is told with bold wit, unflinching honesty, and a firm foot in the traditions of Appalachia. A true story that started as a last-ditch effort to settle debts, it transparently reveals the joys and challenges of overcoming unexpected life-altering events. Flat Broke with Two Goats is a fearlessly written memoir that reminds readers to not take themselves too seriously and to always remember to laugh, no matter their situation.

"Flat Broke is about monumental financial troubles, staggering life changes and a marriage stretched to its very limit," McGaha said. "It is also about unruly dogs, ladies of bluegrass laying hens, and the ins and outs of goat dating. But it is about more than that. It is about home and family and the journeys we take to find our way back to ourselves when we are lost."
