Re: Shape Note Singing at the Sequim Branch Library
Attached: group singing.jpg

Sing out at the Sequim Branch Library! Learn the basics of shape note singing, a traditional American form of community singing on Wednesday, June 6 at 1pm. Beginners welcome.

A representative from Shape Note Singing School will teach shape note singing using the tune book The Sacred Harp. Shape note singing is the folk tradition form of community singing, without instruments, in four vocal parts. Any type, quality, or range of voice will find a comfortable place here. If you are new to this and wondering what it is all about, feel free to drop by to listen or, better yet - join in! Beginning singers are welcome and music reading ability is not a requirement.

This program is generously supported by the Friends of Sequim Library. For more information about this and other upcoming events at your Library, visit, email Discover@nols.org, or call 360.683.1161. The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue.

Sing along with Shape Note Singing School at the Sequim Branch Library on Wednesday, June 6 at 1pm.
