NOLS is hitting the road to offer a special storytime at the Port Angeles Farmers Market on Saturday, September 8 at 10:30am. September is Food Literacy month in Washington, so bring the child in your life to the market to enjoy stories, songs, and rhymes, and learn about where food comes from. Each child who attends will receive a free book to take home provided by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. WSU Extension will also be at the booth to talk about gleaning. While you're there, walk around and enjoy all that the Farmers Market has to offer for your whole family!

The Port Angeles Farmers Market is held at the Gateway Center – on the corner of Front and Lincoln Streets. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. To learn more about this program, visit www.nols.org and select "Events," or contact the library by calling 360.417.8500 or sending an email to discover@nols.org. This program is made possible by the generous support of the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.
