The Port Angeles Main Library of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) will celebrate a new Art in the Library exhibit on Friday, October 26, with their quarterly Art Blast! event. Musician Kalan Wolfe will begin performing at 7pm, bringing his "Driven Medicine Music" into the heart of the library. Doors open at 6:30pm, so come early to check out the new art on display throughout the building and mingle with featured artists! Refreshments will be served, and limited library services will be available during this free after-hours event.

About the Band

Kalan Wolfe is a singer/song writer who grew up in Sequim and now resides in Quilcene. His unique style, described as "Driven Medicine Music," is gaining momentum as he continues to expand his audience here on the Olympic Peninsula and abroad. His songs are uplifting and hopeful, and created with the intention to inspire positive change. Kalan grew up surrounded by the music of his parents and grandparents his whole life. Today, most of his original work is inspired by his family and spiritual community. While on stage, he is accompanied by his father, Karl Hatton, on Cajon and backup vocals. More and more regularly, he is also accompanied by his sister, Olivia Hatton and her beautiful harmonies. For more information, visit www.kalanwolfe.com.

Art in the Library

The opening reception for the new Art in the Library exhibit will be held at 6:30pm, immediately preceding the performance by Kalan Wolfe. This is an opportune time to meet the featured artists, enjoy refreshments, and view the “Fall Into Winter Warmth” themed exhibit, featuring a variety of local quilt artists. This exhibit will be on display at the Port Angeles Main Library from October 26 through January 22.

Art Blast! is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. For more information about events happening, visit www.nols.org, call 360-417-8500, or email Discover@nols.org. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 S. Peabody Street.
