At their meeting on October 25, the Board of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) discussed the results of the 2016-2017 financial and accountability audits. The Washington State Auditor's Office awarded NOLS the highest rating available for the organization.

"Accountability, transparency, and good stewardship of public assets are core values for NOLS," said Library Director Margaret Jakubcin. "We're proud to have once again received high audit ratings. The Auditor also complimented NOLS' Financial Operations team for their sound fiscal management practices, good record keeping, and efficiency."

As a junior taxing district in the State of Washington, NOLS is required to have the State Auditor's Office conduct a biennial audit of financial and accountability practices. Copies of the 2016-2017 audit reports, and those for prior years are available at www.nols.org under the "Board and Administration" section of the website.

The administrative offices of the North Olympic Library System are located at 2010 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles, WA. Questions about the 2016-17 Audit report, or any other administrative, operational, or library functions can be directed to the Library Director, Margaret Jakubcin at Director@nols.org or 360.417.8500 x7714.
