The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) will participate in the 2019 Clallam County Project Homeless Connect event on Friday, March 1 from 9am to 3pm at the Vern Burton Center in Port Angeles. At this event, NOLS staff will provide information about library services, resources, and programming, and will be able to issue new and replacement library cards.

Clallam County Project Homeless Connect is a county-wide annual event that offers on-site services and builds community connections with people experiencing homelessness or who are at risk of becoming homeless in Clallam County.

The Vern Burton Center is located at 308 East 4th Street in Port Angeles.
