Clallam County residents, grab your friends and Read It or Weep! A book trivia competition for adults will be held on Friday, November 1 at 7pm, at the Port Angeles Main Library. Start reading now - multiple copies of the books are available through the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) in both print and non-print formats. Grab your neighbors, friends, coworkers, family, book club, anyone you know - and make a team of 4-6 people. Teams must register by October 25. Register your team by emailing Sarah at smorrison@nols.org. Don't have a team? Have a team but need an extra player? Go to the NOLS Facebook events page to collaborate with fellow readers. Prizes will be awarded for First Place, Second Place, and Team Spirit!

All questions will be based on the five books selected for the competition and will include quotes and other minutiae. Titles for the competition are:

- The Soul of an Octopus by Sy Montgomery
- 438 Days by Jonathan Franklin
- Aquarium by David Vann
- On the Beach by Nevil Shute
- Sea Prayer by Khaled Hosseini

The selected titles are themed around the 2019 Clallam County Reads selection, The Soul of an Octopus. Clallam County Reads is a community-wide initiative encouraging participants to engage in a common reading experience. More information about Clallam County Reads will be released in mid-September, and the program series will begin in October.

Read It or Weep is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.
