The North Olympic Library System (NOLS), will hold three CreativiTea programs in October related to the Clallam County Reads theme of the octopus. Inky Underwater CreativiTeas will be held on Monday, October 7, at 6pm at the Sequim Branch Library, Wednesday, October 9, at 6pm at the Port Angeles Main Library, and again on Saturday, October 12, 3pm at the Forks Branch Library. Registration is required for Sequim and Port Angeles programs. To register, visit nols.org, or call the library.

Adults and teens are encouraged to connect with friends while enjoying tea and creating art. Attendees will create underwater scenes using watercolors, India inks, and markers. No experience is necessary. All supplies are provided. This program is generously supported by the Friends of the Library.

About Clallam County Reads

A community-wide shared reading experience, Clallam County Reads offers free, educational, and community-building events and programs during October and November related to the official selection, The Soul of an Octopus by Sy Montgomery. Stop by any NOLS branch location to pick up your free copy of The Soul of an Octopus and its accompanying reader's guide. A limited supply of paperback copies are available at all four branches and are yours to keep or share. The book is also available for check-out at the library in other favorite formats including hardback, audio, and downloadable versions.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street. The Forks Branch Library is located at 171 Forks Avenue South. To learn more about this and other programs at your library, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email Discover@nols.org.
