As part of Clallam County Reads, join the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) and Cabled Fiber & Yarn to Crochet Orla the Octopus! Register at www.nols.org for one of two sessions of this workshop at the Port Angeles Main Library. The first session will be held on Wednesday, November 6 from 5:30-7:30pm. The second session will be held on Wednesday, November 13 from 5:30-7:30pm.

These workshops are designed for the complete beginner, but it is recommended that participants have a basic understanding of a starting chain and single crochet stitch. Workshops will be preceded with a short talk from Feiro Marine Life Center staff about the life cycle of the octopus. All materials are included and follow-up assistance is available.

About Clallam County Reads

A community-wide shared reading experience, Clallam County Reads offers free, educational, and community-building events and programs during October and November related to the official selection, The Soul of an Octopus by Sy Montgomery. Stop by any NOLS branch location to pick up your copy of The Soul of an Octopus and its accompanying reader's guide.

The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street. To learn more about this and other programs at your library, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email Discover@nols.org.
