The Novel Conversations Book Discussion Group will meet at the Sequim Branch Library of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) on Wednesday, November 20 at 4pm to discuss Educated by Tara Westover.

Born to survivalists in the mountains of Idaho, Tara Westover's family was so isolated from mainstream society that there was no one to ensure the children received an education, and no one to intervene when one of her older brothers became violent. As a way out, she began to educate herself, learning enough mathematics and grammar to be admitted to Brigham Young University. Her quest for knowledge would transform her, taking her over oceans and across continents, to Harvard and to Cambridge. Only then would she wonder if she'd traveled too far, if there was still a way home. Westover has crafted a universal coming-of-age story that gets to the heart of what an education offers: the perspective to see one's life through new eyes, and the will to change it.

Copies this title are available in various formats including regular print, large print, audiobook, and downloadable eBook, which may be requested online by visiting the library catalog at www.nols.org. A limited number of copies of each book discussion selection are available at the Library the month prior to each meeting.

To participate, simply read the book and attend the discussion; no reservations are needed, and drop-ins are always welcome. This program is generously supported by the Friends of Sequim Library.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information about this and other programs for readers and book lovers, visit www.nols.org, email Discover@nols.org, or call 360.683.1161.

“Educated” by Tara Westover will be discussed at 4pm on Wednesday, November 20 at the Sequim Branch Library.
