The Wednesday Evening Book Discussion Group normally meets every fourth Wednesday of the month at the Port Angeles Main Library of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). Due to the Thanksgiving holiday, the November meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 4 at 6:30pm. At this time the group will discuss The House of Broken Angels by Luis Alberto Urrea.

In his final days, beloved and ailing patriarch Miguel Angel de La Cruz, affectionately called Big Angel, has summoned his entire clan for one last legendary birthday party. But as the party approaches, his mother dies herself, leading to a farewell doubleheader in a single weekend. Among the guests is Big Angel's half-brother, known as Little Angel, who must reckon with the truth that although he shares a father with his siblings, he has not shared a life. This indelible portrait of a complex family reminds us of what it means to be the first generation and to live two lives across one border.

Copies of this title are available in various formats including regular print, large print, and downloadable eBook, which may be requested online by visiting the library catalog at www.nols.org. A limited number of copies of each book discussion selection are available at the Library the month prior to each meeting.

To participate, simply read the book and attend the discussion; drop-ins are always welcome. This program is generously supported by the Port Angeles Friends of the Library.

The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. For more information about book discussion groups at your library, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org.

“The House of Broken Angels” by Luis Alberto Urrea will be discussed at 6:30pm on Wednesday, December 4 at the Port Angeles Main Library.
