The Wednesday Evening Book Discussion Group meets every fourth Wednesday of the month at 6:30pm at the Port Angeles Main Library of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). On January 22 the group will meet to discuss There There by Tommy Orange. To participate, simply read the book and attend the discussion; drop-ins are always welcome.

There There is a multi-generational, relentlessly paced story about violence and recovery, hope and loss, identity and power, dislocation and communion, and the beauty and despair woven into the history of a nation and its people.

Copies of this title are available in various formats including regular print, large print, and downloadable eBook, which may be requested online by visiting the library catalog at www.nols.org. A limited number of copies of each book discussion selection are available at the Library the month prior to each meeting.

This program is generously supported by a donation made in memory of Sally Albiso, and the Port Angeles Friends of the Library. The Port Angeles Main Library is located at 2210 South Peabody Street in Port Angeles. For more information about book discussion groups at your library, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org.

“There There” by Tommy Orange will be discussed at 6:30pm on Wednesday, January 22 at the Port Angeles Main Library.
