Junior Science Explorers will be offered at the Sequim Branch of the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) on Saturday, February 8 at 12:30pm. Nurture your child's natural sense of adventure and curiosity, encourage your child to be a persistent problem solver, and introduce your child to basic elements of scientific reasoning with preschool and primary science activities. Designed for children ages 4-6 and their caregivers, this session of Junior Science Explorers will host the Pacific Science Center, as they guide children in exploring how the brain works in identifying textures, scents, and other sensory input. Registration is required; to register, visit www.nols.org, or contact the Sequim Branch Library.
