Connect with other readers in a Virtual Book Chat, offered each Tuesday in May by the North Olympic Library System (NOLS). Talk about what you're reading, and get title suggestions from others in the community. Library staff will moderate the discussion. Join the Zoom meeting via internet or phone with the information provided below. The chats on May 5 and 19 will be held at 7:30pm. The chats on May 12 and 26 will be held at 12:00pm.

Unlike a traditional book club, there is no required reading for attendance. Come prepared to talk about whatever books interest you—or ask for suggestions from other attendees and library staff. This program is intended for adults. All genres and subject areas welcome.

During the COVID-19 emergency, all North Olympic Library System facilities are closed to the public, but NOLS is always open online, and will continue to serve the community in diverse ways during this public health emergency. Make a virtual visit to the library at www.nols.org to check out the virtual programming and other online services available.

Virtual Book Chat!

Tuesdays in May. Join NOLS Librarians through Zoom to discuss what you're reading and connect with your neighbors!
