The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is proud to partner with the Clallam County Emergency Operations Center to provide FREE masks to the public. NOLS recognizes that masks are not easily accessible to many individuals in our community. During this time, when masks are required in public spaces, it is paramount that people have access to this essential personal protection equipment. Masks are available to everyone while supplies last; please take only what you need for yourself and family.

Free cloth masks are available at the Port Angeles, Sequim, Forks, & Clallam Bay branches during curbside service hours, while supplies last. Curbside service is available at all branches Monday – Friday 11am-5pm. Curbside service is available at the Port Angeles, Sequim, and Forks branches on Saturday 10am-1pm.

Holds pickup and materials return service is available during the Curbside Service hours. To help protect employees and the public, all patrons are encouraged to wear a face covering when visiting the library.

Make a virtual visit to the library at www.nols.org, or follow NOLS on Facebook and Instagram, to enjoy events, online resources, and other NOLS services. Library staff are also available to assist by phone Monday-Saturday at 360-417-8500x2.

Free masks are available at all NOLS locations
