The North Olympic Library System will give a copy of Stamped by Ibram X. Kendi and Jason Reynolds to 100 Clallam County families. Ask for a copy at curbside beginning October 16. Read the book and join Library staff on Zoom for a series of half-hour discussions to keep the dialogue going. Discussions are scheduled for November 16, 17, 19, 20 at 7pm. Register to receive the Zoom meeting information at www.nols.org.

Through a gripping, fast-paced, and energizing narrative written by beloved award-winner Jason Reynolds, this book shines a light on the many insidious forms of racist ideas—and on ways readers can identify and stamp out racist thoughts in their daily lives.

Stamped is not a book of history, it's about what's happening now. In Jason Reynolds's words, "Our present is a product of our history." Read the book as a family, talk about it together and join the community conversations on Zoom. The publisher recommends this book for ages 12 and up. All ages are welcome to participate in the Family Reads program.

This program is generously funded by the Friends of the Library. For additional information on programs and services happening at your library, visit www.nols.org, email Discover@nols.org, or follow North Olympic Library System on Facebook and Instagram.

NOLS presents Family Reads with free giveaways and discussions of “Stamped”.
