The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) announces Clallam County Writes: Community Journals. If you miss connecting with others, like to create with words or art, or want to share your thoughts with others, the Clallam County Writes: Community Journals are for you! Place a hold on one of the 4 themed journals and take it home for a week. Enjoy what others in your community have contributed, add your own creative energy, and then return it for the next person to enjoy!

Each journal has a theme, with four themes available for three months at a time. The journals are intended for adult writers and readers, but each quarter, there is one kid-friendly journal intended to be appropriate for all ages. Themes available from April through June are "Poetry," "Make Me Laugh," "A Journal of Gratitude," and "Ongoing Story." For a list of upcoming themes or to place a journal on hold, visit nols.org/clallam-county-writes, or contact your NOLS library.

For more information about this program, visit www.nols.org, email Discover@nols.org, or call 360.417.8500.
