Join the North Olympic Library System (NOLS) and the Out Loud Story Slam two ways—outdoors at the Sequim Branch Library, or streaming online through the NOLS Facebook page. Storytellers at Summer Nights: Stories with Out Loud Story Slam will share their own stories to wrap up the 2021 Summer Reading Program, “Reading Colors Your World.” These stories are intended for adult listeners.

This event will be held at the Sequim Branch Library outdoor stage on Friday, August 20 at 7pm—bring a camping chair or a blanket and listen as the sun goes down. Social distancing between groups and masks are encouraged. Stories will also be streamed simultaneously to the NOLS Facebook page. In the event of inclement weather or public health restrictions, stories will be streamed to the NOLS Facebook page without in-person seating. Check the NOLS website for updates.

Thank you to Out Loud Story Slam for recruiting and coordinating the local storytellers. Find out more about Out Loud Story Slam at outloudstoryslams.com.

The Sequim Branch Library is located at 630 North Sequim Avenue. For more information on this or other library programs, visit www.nols.org, call 360.683.1161, or email Discover@nols.org.

*Join NOLS and Out Loud Story Slam for live storytelling at the Sequim Branch Library on August 20.
